The Bowery Boys Greg Young 2016-06-21 Uncover fascinating, little-known histories of the five boroughs in The Bowery Boys' official companion to their popular, award-winning podcast. It was 2007. Sitting at a kitchen table and speaking into an old karaoke microphone, Greg Young and Tom Meyers recorded their first podcast. They weren't history professors or voice actors. They were just two guys living in the Bowery and possessing an unquenchable thirst for the fascinating stories from New York City's past. Nearly 200 episodes later, The Bowery Boys podcast is a phenomenon, thrilling audiences each month with one amazing story after the next. Now, in their first-ever book, the duo gives you an exclusive personal tour through New York's old cobblestone streets and gas-lit back alleyways. In their uniquely approachable style, the authors bring to life everything from makeshift forts of the early Dutch years to the opulent mansions of The Gilded Age. They weave tales that will reshape your view of famous sites like Times Square, Grand Central Terminal, and the High Line. Then they go even further to reveal notorious dens of vice, scandalous Jazz Age crime scenes, and park statues with strange pasts. Praise for The Bowery Boys "Among the best city-centric series." —New York Times "Meyers and Young have become unofficial ambassadors of New York history." —NPR "Breezy and informative, crowded with the finest grifters, knickerbockers, spiritualists, and city builders to stalk these streets since back when New Amsterdam was just some farms." —Village Voice "Young and Meyers have an all-consuming curiosity to work out what happened in their city in years past, including the Newsboys Strike of 1899, the history of the Staten Island Ferry, and the real-life sites on which Martin Scorsese's Vinyl is based." —The Guardian

The Good Hotel Guide 2003 David Raphael 2002 For over 25 years the bestselling Good Hotel Guide has been acclaimed as the most accurate, honest and insightful hotel guide on the market. Unlike most of its competitors the GHG is 100% independent. The best way to find a good hotel is by personal recommendation. This guide is just that. It has been fairly described as word-of-mouth in print. Unlike any of its competitors, the quality of reporting and writing has become a byword for excellence in the murky field of hotel guides. No other guide manages to combine information with insight, economical reporting with evocative descriptions, delightful bands for the budget conscious with stylish hotels for the comfort conscious. It is annually updated and rewritten with totally accurate entries and information. Every entry must have an individual appeal, as well as offering high customer care and value for money. Whether you are looking for an overnight city stay or a luxurious country break the GHG will save you time and money and deliver the perfect hotel for the occasion.

The Best Dog Friendly Pubs, Hotels and B&Bs Alisdair Aird 2003 This much needed pocket guide will cover over 750 quality-assured hotels, pubs and day trip locations for you and your dog. Complete with maps, detailed directions and current information on hours and facilities.

Phileas Dogg's Guide to Dog Friendly Holidays in Britain Jane Common 2014-05-15 A canine guide to British holidays, seeking out the best dog-friendly days out, beaches, hotels, pubs, campsites, cottages and holidays. An amusing and informative guide, illustrated with photos of different dogs, from pedigrees to mutts, at various locations around Britain. The book builds on the success of the website www.phileasdogg.com, which has been running for 18 months and has a mailing list and social media following in the thousands. The site's main canine correspondent is Attlee, aka Phileas Dogg, a three year old Battersea mongrel, owned by freelance journalist Jane Common. As well as Attlee, the site is written by a team of Rover Reporters from as far afield as the Shetland Isles and Cornwall. In the short time it's been running, the site has been picked up by The Evening Standard and The Guardian - "even if you don't have a dog we urge you to read this"; Waitrose Weekend, Prima, Real People and Dogs Today magazines as well as generating local paper stories around the country, in places where Phileas has visited. Jane has been invited on to BBC Radio as an expert in dog travel and worked with Visit England, the Kennel Club and Battersea Dogs and Cats Home to promote dog-friendly holidays and days out.
